OVERTURE.

It is with pleasure we present our third St. Clair County Directory to the citizens of St. Clair County. It is a pleasure to the Wolverine Directory Company, because through this edition they have learned that the citizens are beginning to realize what a first-class directory is, the amount of labor attached to the publishing of it, and the advantage of a book of this kind.

The business men of the county have supported the new book in a liberal way and the publishers are well pleased with the patronage, as it has afforded them the opportunity of adding new features to the directory.

The County of St. Clair is one of the best counties in the State in regard to agriculture, transportation, and manufacturing, its situation is surpassed by none. The railroads traverse the county in all directions and affords the business man and farmers with the best of shipping facilities. The townships of the county, with the exception of two or three, are as rich as any in the country. It has the advantage of others by having water shipping to the far east, west and northwest.

The eastern portion of St. Clair County has for its boundary the St. Clair river—termed by all those who have had the pleasure of visiting it, as the “Venice of America.” This river affords one of all the pleasure for a summer outing, fishing, boating, bathing, and in fact all the pleasure one can find at any of our great sea shore resorts. Some of the finest pleasure boats to be found any where, ply daily up and down this beautiful river, or one can take the Rapid Railway, which also traverse up and down the banks of this beautiful river, with its beautiful hotels and parks at every turn.

In to whose hand this work falls, we will say, come to this county for farming, manufacturing or pleasure. You will find its people hospitable and not of that jealous disposition that is found in many other localities.

In concluding, we tender our thanks to all those who have lent their support to this enterprise, wishing for a continuance in the future. We remain

Respectfully yours,

WOLVERINE DIRECTORY CO.

P. S.—The population of Port Huron as near as possible to estimate by the number of names alphabetically compiled, is 26,874, this of course includes that portion around Upton and South Park, Campau and as far west as Tappan Junction.
