Marine City Directory

Population 4,300. The second largest city in St. Clair county. Is located 20 miles south of Port Huron, on the banks of the St. Clair river. Has also Belle river, which is noted for the laying up of boats in the winter. Principal industries are salt and ship building, and a fine mineral bath house and hotel combined.

There are six churches and 20 secret societies, unions, etc. Has two banks and fine city hall and public halls. A good town for summer seekers, as the people are sociable and accommodating.
